

Feedback 54th ISOCARP congress

Cool Planning - Changing Climate and Our Urban Future

17:00	Sandwiches &amp; drinks
17:30	Welcome, introduction and motivation Fredéric Raynaud (Referee perspectiveLab)  Paul Vermeylen (Chairman FUPFor Urban Passion)  Griet Geerinck (ISOCARP Belgium)
17:45	A larger frame for planning: challenges of climate change and the third industrial revolution Dr. Annette Kuhk (humanarc research) presents main insights from the ISOCARP-keynote speeches
18:30	Constituting elements in a systemic approach to cool planning (society, technology, governance...) Dirk Van de Putte (Urban and Territorial Development Advisor) presents the results of the several conference topics at ISOCARP.
18:50	Contemporary approaches to cool planning policies and practices in the three regions in Belgium The debate starts with insights from 4 planning professionals, and is moderated by dr. Annette Kuhk (director humanarc). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Climate change and changes in spatial structures in Flanders (cf. CcASPAR research project ,). Pitch by Guy Vloebergh (senior spatial planner, Omgeving)</li> <li>• How to make Brussels cooler: climate issues and environmental challenges in spatial policies in the Brussels Capital Region  Pitch by Géraud Bonhomme (project manager - territorial strategy, perspective.brussels)</li> <li>• Climate Change: a spatial planning perspective. Pitch by Jacques Teller (Professor at LEMA, Université de Liège)</li> <li>• A master plan to optimize existing and to attract new activities on site , based in a step-by-step, flexible, environmentally regenerative redevelopment of the Abattoir site. Pitch by Jo Huygh (Architect and independent consultant in urban and real estate development - Abattoir)</li> </ul>